CARL F. BARGER President

Carl F. Barger, directly responsible for putting together the public-private coalition that purchased the Pirates from the Galbreath family in 1985, was named President and a Director of the club on December 2, 1987.

Barger had been an officer since the sale of the team, previously serving as Secretary/General Counsel, and had also served as interim President since October 23, 1987.

He gained recognition for his involvement in the unique plan that kept the Pirates in Pittsburgh. In fact the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, looking for ways to keep the Mariners in Seattle, invited him to discuss details of the plan last April. "You have to have a working private group that has access and clout," says Barger. "You have to get a point man and you have to have a political figure with guts."

Barger is Managing Partner of Eckert, Seamans, Cherin & Mellott, a 170-lawyer law firm in Pittsburgh. His area of practice is corporate law and corporate finance for both public and private companies. His involvement in the Pirates actually began in 1984 when his firm offered free legal advice to any Pittsburgh investor who would consider purchasing the club from the Galbreaths.

A native of Lewistown, PA, he received his B.S. degree from Shippensburg State University in 1952. Following two years of service as an officer in the U.S. Army, he went on to Dickinson School of Law where he graduated summa cum laude with a Doctorate of Laws Degree in 1958 and joined Eckert, Seamans, Cherin & Mellott.

PERSONAL: Carl F. Barger . . . Born on 8/18/32 . . . Has two daughters . . . Played baseball and basketball at Shippensburg University . . . Was Editor-in-Chief of the DICKINSON LAW REVIEW while attending law school . . . Is a member of the American, Pennsylvania, Allegheny County, and International Bar Associations, and the Association of World Peace Through Law . . . Prominent in a number of civic and charitable organizations in Pittsburgh, he is a trustee of Children's Hospital and the Pittsburgh Opera and a director of the Pittsburgh Public Theater . . . Was honored this past January by Vectors Pittsburgh as its Man of the Year in law and government . . . SYD THRIFT

Senior V.P. and G.M. for Baseball Operations

When Syd Thrift was appointed to head up baseball operations for the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 7, 1985, there were obvious changes ahead.

Certainly the most noticeable came during the 1987 season, particularly in the final six weeks when the Pirates won 27 of their last 38 games to finish 80-82. The increase of 16 wins over 1986 (64-98) was matched by just one other major league team, the St. Louis Cardinals, who improved from 79-82 in 1986 to 95-67.

Some of the improvement can be attributed to Thrift's acquisitions of pitchers Doug Drabek, Mike Dunne, Logan Easley, Brian Fisher, Jim Golt, and Jeff Robinson, catcher Mike LaValliere, infielder Al Pedrique, and outfielders John Cangelosi, Darnell Coles, Terry Harper and Andy Van Slyke, all of whom were obtained after the 1986 season.

Another contributing factor to the team's progress was his confidence in several promising youngsters from the Pirates' own minor league system. As Thrift says, each new player was hand picked for a specific purpose.

Thrift has brought many fresh concepts and ideas to the Pirates. He is constantly searching for ways to improve every phase of the operation, as well as the performances of each player. Scouting at all levels arms the Pirates with comprehensive data on amateurs as well as professional players. In their own system players get individualized instruction from the start of spring training thru the fall instructional league. "I'm a believer of instruction at all levels of the game, and it doesn't stop when a player gets to the major leagues," says Thrift.

Each player now has a specific year-round conditioning program designed for his body type and specialized baseball needs. "What I've found is that players work diligently on conditioning to get to the major leagues . . . Then, when they reach that plateau, they stop doing what got them there . . ."

Players also benefit from the upgrading of video-taping their performances. Other new approaches include a "visualization program" (designed to eliminate the inaccuracies in the way something is seen, and to improve concentration), and classes in subjects such as financial planning, tax laws, nutrition, public speaking, and drugs and how they affect performances.

A native of Virginia, Thrift brings over 27 years of professional baseball experience to the Pirates, including 11 years (1957-67) with Pittsburgh as a scouting supervisor and spring training instructor.

Syd began his baseball career in 1949 as a lefthanded pitcher and first baseman in the New York Yankee farm system. In 1951 and 1952, he was player-manager of the U.S. Army team in Ft. Eustis (VA), a club which included Willie Mays, Vernon Law and other major leaguers.

After serving as a part-time scout for the Yankees and Pirates from (1953-56), he was employed as a high school teacher, coach and guidance counselor. He then became a scouting supervisor with the Pirates in 1957.

During his first tour of duty with the Pirates, Thrift helped to sign and develop the players who would go on to win two World Series and six division titles in the 1970s. He was instrumental in signing such players as Al Oliver, Bob Robertson, Woodie Fryman, and Don Money.

His specialty is the procurement and development of young baseball talent. Following the '67 season, he joined the Kansas City Royals, where he was a scouting director and the founding Director of the Royals' renowned Baseball Academy, which produced 14 major leaguers, including current K.C. star Frank White.

As Director of the Academy from 1969 to 1972, Thrift innovated a system of player procurement and development which was unique in scope and design. In addition, the Academy was innovative in a number of new baseball concepts, including the time-measured lead, the aerodynamics of the ball in flight and its effect on pitching and hitting, and advanced physical conditioning programs.

From 1975 to 1976 he worked for the Oakland A's, during which time he was involved with the procurement of Rickey Henderson, among others. He worked closely with A's owner Charles O. Finley in all matters and was responsible for the day-to-day operation of the club.

In 1976 Thrift entered the real estate business in Fairfax, VA. In 1982 he opened Syd Thrift and Associates, Inc. Realtors.

While serving that company as president and chief executive officer, he remained active in baseball. In 1981, he conducted baseball clinics in Sweden, Denmark and Finland under the sanction of the Commissioner's Office and the U.S. Baseball Federation. Bobby Bonilla was involved in one of those clinics and it was Thrift that recommended the Pirates sign him after he went undrafted. During those years he was involved with baseball at all levels, organizing and conducting instructional clinics, recommending players and helping amateur coaches.

PERSONAL: Sydnor W. Thrift, Jr. . . . Born on 2/25/29 . . . Wife's name is Dolly . . . Two sons; Jim (25) and Mark (22) . . . Son Jim played in the Oakland A's organization and is a manager in the Pirates' farm system . . . Syd received his B.A. degree from Randolph-Macon (VA) College . . . Received several coveted awards during the past winter, including Dapper Dan's Man of the Year, the Arthritis Foundation's 1987 Honoree, and Vectors' Man of the Year in Sports . . . In his position as Senior Vice President for Business Operations, Dr. Bernie Mullin oversees the direction and coordination of the Pirates' marketing, promotions, public relations, ticket management, stadium operations, administration and broadcasting.

In 1987 Pirate attendance was up 16 per cent from the previous year. And early returns, from 1988 pre-season sales, show the trend is continuing.

A native of England, Mullin was named to his current position on October 6, 1986. He came to the U.S. in 1973 after working in management positions for British Leyland Motor Corp. (two years) and Serck Tubes Ltd. (one year). He later earned his M.S., M.B.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the U. of Kansas.

Mullin came to Pittsburgh from Deerfield, MA where he was President of National Sports Management (NSM) for seven years and a professor at the U. of Massachusetts in Amherst for nine years.

With NSM, Mullin provided management, marketing and public relations services to a variety of sports organizations. He was a marketing consultant to the Pirates during the 1986 season.

At the U. of Massachusetts he was a professor of sports management and marketing. His textbook, titled "Sports Marketing, Promotions and Public Relations," is currently being used in many collegiate sports administration programs.

JIM LEYLAND (MGR)

1988 OPENING DAY AGE: 43

BORN: Dec. 15, 1944 in Toledo, OH

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

HEIGHT: 5'11" WEIGHT: 180

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

A veteran of 24 years in professional baseball, Jim Leyland enters his third season at the helm of the Pittsburgh Pirates, his 14th as a professional manager.

In 1987 Leyland guided the Pirates to an 80-82 mark, their best record since 1983 and a 16-game improvement over 1986. Just one other major league team, the St. Louis Cardinals (79-82 in 1986 to 95-67), could boast of such an increase in the win column. For his efforts Leyland was duly noted by United Press International, finishing third in its balloting for N.L. Manager of the Year.

Bolstered with several acquisitions by Syd Thrift, along with the nurturing of several players already in the system, Leyland's team won 27 of its last 38 games. Capping off the year was a three-game sweep over Philadelphia on the final weekend, enabling the Bucs to tie the Phillies for fourth place in the N.L. East.

The Pirates completed Leyland's rookie year at 64-98, with seven more wins than the 1985 club (57-104), yet finished sixth for the third straight season. Still, the club improved statistically in nearly every offensive category thanks to an aggressive attack. "We're in the entertainment business. People tend to forget that," says Leyland. "As a manager, I may like a 1-0 game ... but the fans are bored by it."

Known for his feisty and energetic personality, Leyland has been described as an intense competitor, but one who is able to put those around him at ease. He quickly established authority in the Pirate clubhouse, while at the same time maintaining a good rapport with his players as well as those in the front office.

Thrift cited Leyland's successful track record at every level, his dedication and his ability to teach when announcing Leyland's appointment. Tigers' GM Bill Lajoie described him as being creative, a manager who always comes up with a new way to get a runner home. Former White Sox' GM Ken Harrelson said he has every quality you want in a manager — knowledge, patience and guts.

Leyland's appointment came on Nov. 20, 1985. He joined the Pirates after four seasons as the Chicago White Sox' third base coach and outfield instructor. He had been regarded as one of the finest third base coaches in the A.L. and had long been considered an outstanding major league managerial candidate.

A catcher during his playing days, Leyland signed his first professional contract with the Detroit organization in the fall of 1963 and served that organization as a player, minor league coach and minor league manager until joining the White Sox for the 1982 season.

A player from 1964 thru 1969, he was appointed coach at Montgomery (Class AA Southern League) in 1970. In 1971, at the age of 26, he received his first managerial assignment, taking over the Tigers' Bristol club of the Appalachian Rookie League. He also managed at Clinton in the Class A Midwest League, at Montgomery (AA), and at Lakeland in the Class A Florida State League, before spending three seasons with the Tigers' Evansville club in the Class AAA American Association. His teams advanced to the playoffs in five of his last six seasons, winning three league championships. All told, his clubs made six post-season appearances in his 11 campaigns at the minor league level.

Leyland was named Manager of the Year in the Class A Florida State League in 1977 and 1978. He was also named as the Class AAA American Association Manager of the Year after leading Evansville to the league title in 1979.

RICH DONNELLY (Coach)

1988 OPENING DAY AGE: 41

BORN: August 3, 1946 in Steubenville, OH

RESIDES: Steubenville, OH

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

In his role as the Pirates' bullpen coach, Rich Donnelly does more than answer the bullpen phone and making sure the relief pitchers are warmed up prior to coming into a game.

Donnelly coordinates workout schedules during spring training as well as all phases of the regular season pre-game routine. During the game it's his responsibility to keep a book on opposing hitters and to go over it with the relievers so they are prepared for who they may face when they enter a game and how to pitch to those hitters.

A former catcher, Donnelly was originally signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1967 after playing four seasons at Xavier University in Cincinnati. He had been drafted twice previously by the Yankees, but opted to stay in school. A veteran of 20 years in professional baseball, the Steubenville, OH native spent 16 seasons in the Washington/Texas organization before joining the Pirates.

Rich began his pro career playing at St. Cloud (MN) in the Northern League in 1968. He tied for the league lead in games played in his first pro season and led league catchers in putouts (486), assists (58) and fielding pct. (.984).

Donnelly spent four years as a player prior to becoming manager of the Rangers' Greenville (Class A) club in the Western Carolinas League in 1972. He managed the Rangers' Western Carolinas League clubs for four seasons, earning that circuit's Manager of the Year award in each of his first three campaigns when his clubs advanced to the playoffs. In 1974, his Gastonia club won the league title.

In 1976 the Rangers promoted him to manage at the AAA level in the Pacific Coast League. He piloted the Sacramento club in 1976, then Tucson for the next three seasons.

In 1980 he joined the major league club as bullpen coach, but returned to manage at the AAA level in the American Association for the 1981 (Wichita) and 1982 (Denver) seasons. He returned to the Texas club in 1983 and was the Rangers' first base coach for three seasons before being named to his current post with the Pirates on December 12, 1985.

BORN: Dec. 25, 1946 in Rockford, IL

RESIDES: Sarasota, FL

HEIGHT: 6'1" WEIGHT: 195

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

The Pirates named Gene Lamont as their third base coach on November 21, 1985, just one day after Jim Leyland was appointed as the Pirates' manager.

Along with relaying signs and directing runners around the bases, Lamont is also responsible for getting the Pirates to their correct spots defensively in each situation.

A manager in the Kansas City Royals' farm system for eight seasons after retiring as an active player, Lamont spent the final two seasons of his managerial career with the Royals' Omaha club in the Class AAA American Association. Three of his eight teams advanced to the playoffs and 10 players on the 1985 World Champion Royals club played for Lamont in the K.C. farm system.

A catcher during his playing days, Lamont was the Tigers' first round pick in the June 1965 free agent draft (the 13th player picked overall). He spent all but three months of his playing career with the Detroit organization and made a big impression in his major league debut by homering in his first at-bat off the Red Sox' Cal Koonce on 9/2/70.

Gene spent the entire 1974 season with the Tigers and parts of four other campaigns with Detroit. He compiled a lifetime .233 average in 87 major league games with four homers and 14 runs batted in.

After closing out his playing career in 1977 with the Tigers' Evansville (Class AAA) club he began his managerial career with the Royals' Ft. Myers club in the Class A Florida State League in 1978, leading that team to a playoff berth.

Following two seasons at Ft. Myers, he managed Kansas City's Jacksonville club in the Class AA Southern League. In 1982 he was named the Southern League's Manager of the Year and his clubs went to the playoffs in two of his four seasons there. He spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons at the AAA level with the Royals' Omaha club in the American Association.

MILT MAY (Coach)

1988 OPENING DAY AGE: 37

BORN: Aug. 1, 1950 in Gary, IN

RESIDES: Bradenton, FL

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

Former major league catcher Milt May was named as the Pirates' hitting instructor on November 11, 1986.

His role entails working with the hitters prior to the game, watching their mechanics, studying videos, talking to hitters about what each pitcher throws and what to look for in certain situations, and making sure potential pinch hitters are ready and loosened up when it's time to enter the game.

The son of former major league infielder Merrill "Pinky" May, Milt spent 14 full seasons in the majors, retiring after the 1984 campaign. After spending one year as vice president of a bank in Bradenton, FL, he worked in the Pirate organization in 1986 as the club's advance scout, as a roving catching and hitting instructor in the minor league system, and as a manager and instructor in the Florida Instructional League.

Selected by the Pirates in the June, 1968 free agent draft, May made his major league debut in 1970, playing in five games at the age of 20. He played three full seasons for the Pirates, then played for Houston, Detroit, the Chicago White Sox and San Francisco, before being reacquired by the Pirates in August of 1983. He compiled a .263 lifetime batting mark in 1192 major league games with 77 home runs and 443 runs batted in.

During his minor league career he was named to his league's all-star squad each year — Gulf Coast Rookie League in 1968, Western Carolinas League in 1969 and International League in 1970.

In 1971, at the age of 21, he delivered a game-winning pinch-single in Game Four of the World Series vs. Baltimore. Traded to Houston after the 1973 season, he drove in Baseball's one millionth run on 5/4/75 when he hit a three-run home run @S.F. to drive home Bob Watson. He was traded to Detroit following the 1975 season, but played just six games in 1976 due to a fractured ankle. He spent the second half of the 1979 season with the White Sox, signing with the Giants as a free agent following the season.

He hit three career grand slams, had two two-homer games, collected five hits in a game (7/7/72 — 1st gm. — @Atlanta), and drove in five runs in a game twice.

PERSONAL: Milton Scott May Wife's name is Brenda Two children: Milt Jr. (6/1/73) and Merrily (1/13/76) Son of Merrill "Pinky" May, former infielder with the Philadelphia Phillies (1939-43) Was a shortstop at St. Petersburg (FL) H.S. Enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time.

RAY MILLER (Coach)

1988 OPENING DAY AGE: 42

BORN: April 30, 1945 in Takoma Park, MD

RESIDES: New Athens, OH

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Pitcher

Ray Miller, one of the most respected pitching mentors in baseball, was named Pirates' pitching coach on October 20, 1986.

He oversees the pitching mechanics, helps prepare a game plan as to how to pitch to each hitter, watches for signs in a pitcher's delivery that may indicate he is tiring, is in charge of the pitching charts, and records how long each reliever is up in the bullpen during the course of a game.

Miller, who formerly managed the Minnesota Twins, is best known for his successful stint as pitching coach of the Baltimore Orioles. In seven and a half seasons (1978-85) in that role he coached two Cy Young Award winners (Mike Flanagan and Steve Stone) and five 20-game winners (Jim Palmer, Flanagan, Stone, Scott McGregor and Mike Boddicker). Baltimore also appeared in the World Series twice during his stay there (1979 and 1983).

Miller, who reports to the Florida Instructional League each fall, helps oversee the development of the young pitchers in the organization, a vital part of the club's rebuilding process.

Originally signed by the San Francisco Giants, Miller began his pro career in 1964, playing for Lexington in the Western Carolinas League. He led the league in shutouts, was second in ERA and pitched a no-hitter in a 0-0 game called by rain after 8 IP on 8/3 that year and was drafted by the Cleveland organization following the season. He was traded to the Baltimore organization in May of 1971 and ended his playing career with the Orioles' Rochester (AAA) club in 1973, a year in which he became a player-coach. He finished his pro career with a record of 60-65.

From 1974 thru 1977 he served as Baltimore's minor league pitching instructor, then joined the Orioles at the major league level for the 1978 season. On June 21, 1985 he became manager of the Minnesota Twins. The club went 50-50 under his direction in his first year and was 59-80 in 1986 when he was replaced on September 12.

TOMMY SANDT (Coach)

1988 OPENING DAY AGE: 37

BORN: Dec. 22, 1950 in Brooklyn, NY

RESIDES: Lake Oswego, OR

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Infield

Following an outstanding five-year stint as a manager in the Pirate farm system, Tommy Sandt was rewarded by being named as the Pirates' first base coach on October 16, 1986.

Prior to the game Tommy works with the infielders. During the game he is charge of the Pirates' baserunning, talking to runners about what to look for in pitchers' moves for pickoffs, about outfielders' arms, who you can take an extra base on, who charges the ball, and about what to be thinking in each situation.

A former major league infielder, Sandt was a player-coach for the Pirates' Portland (AAA) club in 1980 and 1981 prior to a two-year term as manager of the Pirates' AA entry in the Eastern League. In 1982 Buffalo finished 55-84. The club moved to Lynn (MA) in 1983 and finished in second place with a 77-62 mark, advancing to the Eastern League championship series, and earning Sandt a promotion to the AAA level as manager of the Pirates' Hawaii club in the Pacific Coast League.

Sandt led the Islanders to the best mark in AAA baseball in each of his first two seasons at Hawaii. In 1984 he was named PCL Manager of the Year after Hawaii finished 87-53 (.621) overall, winning the second-half Southern Division title enroute to the PCL Championship Series. BASEBALL AMERICA also honored him that year as AAA Manager of the Year. In 1985 the Islanders posted a mark of 84-59 (.587) overall, winning the first-half Southern Division crown. In 1986 Hawaii was 65-79 (.451) overall, giving Tommy a three-year AAA mark of 236-191 (.553). In five seasons as a minor league manager his teams compiled a record of 368-337 (.522), advancing three times to post-season play.

Primarily a shortstop, Sandt spent most of his playing career in the Oakland A's organization. He was Oakland's second round selection in the June 1969 free agent draft and was named as the Northwest League's Player of the Year that year. He made his major league debut in 1975 with the A's, appearing in one game, after finishing fourth in the PCL in batting and leading league shortstops in fielding (.956). He then spent the entire 1976 season with Oakland, playing in 41 contests.

He was signed as a free agent by St. Louis on May 31, 1977. The Pittsburgh organization acquired him in a deal for pitcher John Stuper on Jan. 25, 1979.

PERSONAL: Thomas James Sandt . . . Wife's name is Diane . . . One son: Tom II (8/23/71) . . . Graduated from Pacifica H.S. in Garden Grove, CA where he played baseball and football . . . Was all-state in baseball . . . Has lived in Lake Oswego, OR, a Portland suburb, since 1980 . . . Managed Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League for three seasons (1983-84 to 1985-86), guiding club to playoffs all three years, including a regular-season title in his final year there . . . Hobbies include golf, jogging and surfing.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That former Pirates Dave Parker (in 1978) and Willie Stargell (in 1979) both won National League Most Valuable Player awards in years in which they were not selected to play in the All-Star Game. Only two other MVPs have not been selected for the mid-summer classic — Detroit first baseman Hank Greenberg, A.L. MVP in 1935, and Brooklyn pitcher Don Newcombe, N.L. MVP in 1956.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Pirates are proud to be a part of Pittsburgh and are committed to returning the support that the community has given them.

Through numerous community relations programs, the Pirate organization, its manager, coaches and players are involved in non-profit organizations and charity work throughout the year. The off-season "Pirates in the Community" program, which brings players back for appearances in the area during an eight-week period, saw eight players make more than 100 appearances last winter — most at no cost to the organizations involved.

Sid Bream, Mike Diaz, Doug Drabek, Mike Dunne, Brian Fisher, Jim Gott, R. J. Reynolds and Jeff Robinson participated in the program which ran from November through the start of the club's annual winter caravan February 1. The players, along with the popular Pirate Parrot, were involved in a variety of activities such as visiting area schools, hospitals, and industries, appearing on local TV and radio shows, at malls, banquets, luncheons and clinics.

Under the direction of Community Relations Director Patty Paytas, the Pirates are also involved year-round with programs for the handicapped, the young, the old and the disadvantaged. Among the organizations with which the Pirates are extensively involved are: Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Arthritis Foundation, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Pennsylvania State Education Association, United Way, Easter Seals, Pony League Baseball and Citiparks.

In January, the Pirates named Al Gordon Director of Community Services and Sales. Working with Paytas, Gordon will be responsible for the development and execution of programs designed to reach youth and the corporate and minority communities.

Anyone interested in having the Pirates involved with their community or organization can contact Ms. Paytas or Mr. Gordon in the Pirates' Community Relations Department, Three Rivers Stadium, Pittsburgh, PA 15212 (412-323-5000).

PIRATE BROADCASTERS

Lanny Frattare

The "Voice of the Pirates," Lanny Frattare is in his 13th season with the club. Only Bob Prince and Rosey Rowswell have described Pirate action longer than Lanny. In early August (the 112th game), Frattare will broadcast his 2,000th Pirate game. A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his B.S. degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) college in 1970. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 when he did play-by-play for the Geneva (NY) Senators in the Class A New York-Penn League. Frattare's association with the Pirates began in 1974 when he served as a broadcaster for the Charleston Charlies, the Pirates' AAA International League affiliate. He worked the Charlies' games for two years before joining the Pirates' broadcast crew in 1976. In addition to his duties with the Pirates, he was the radio voice of Penn State football last fall and did TV play-by-play for Ohio State basketball last winter. He also did Buckeye basketball for three consecutive winters beginning in 1980-81 and was play-by-play voice of the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League for two seasons (1974-75 and 1975-76). Lanny enjoys golf, presidential history and music and he and his wife Liz are both involved in a number of Pittsburgh area civic and charity projects. Lanny also works closely with the Pirates Community Relations Dept. The Frattares reside in Upper St. Clair with their two children, David and Megan.

Jim Rooker

Jim Rooker is in his eighth year of broadcasting Pirate games. A former lefthanded pitcher, Rooker won 103 major league games, including 82 with the Pirates. Born in Lakeview, OR, Jim was raised in Southern California. Signed originally by Detroit as an outfielder, he didn't begin pitching on a regular basis until 1965. In 1968 he made his major league debut and pitched in two games for the World Champion Tigers. The Kansas City Royals drafted him in the third round of the expansion draft following the '68 campaign and he remained with Kansas City until October 25, 1972, when he was acquired by the Pirates. "Rook" averaged 13 wins per season in his first five years as a Pirate. He will best be remembered as the Pirates' starting pitcher in Game 5 of the 1979 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles. With his club down three-games-to-one, Rooker allowed only one run over five innings while battling Oriole ace Mike Flanagan to a standoff, before the Pirates came back to win the game and go on to win the series in seven games. Bothered by arm problems throughout the '79 season, Rooker spent five months on the disabled list in 1980 before retiring at the end of the season. Jim enjoys golf, hunting, and traveling. He and his wife Betty have three children — David (who pitched in the Pirates' farm system), Stephanie and Jami; they also have three grandchildren.

DID YOU KNOW . . . KDKA Radio and KDKA-TV are in their 34th consecutive year with the Pirates, having originated broadcasts in each year since 1955 . . . KDKA Radio broadcast the first baseball game ever, when Harold Arlin was behind the microphone on August 5, 1921 when the Pirates played the Phillies.

John Sanders

John Sanders, KDKA-TV Sports Director, is in his eighth full season on the Pirate broadcast team. A native of Manhattan, KS, Sanders keeps a very active schedule which has him busy broadcasting various sports events around the world from golf tournaments in Japan to Pirate broadcasts around the U.S. John received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University in 1965. He spent 12 years at KMBC-TV in Kansas City, MO, where he was presented with the Missouri Broadcasting Assn. Sports Reporting Award in 1974 and 1976. John joined the KDKA-TV staff in February, 1978, as the weekend sports anchor and was named sports director of the station in 1980. Along with his work on Pirate broadcasts, John also works on numerous assignments for ESPN, and is sports editor of KDKA Radio's daily "Ninety to Six" report. John, his wife Cherie, and their two children, Gabrielle and Hillary, reside in Mt. Lebanon.

Steve Blass

Former Pirate righthander Steve Blass joined the Pirate broadcast crew in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, Steve began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in June of 1960. In 10 major league seasons (1964-74) with the Pirates, he compiled a record of 103-76 in 282 games, and ranks seventh on the Pirates' all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins (103). A member of the 1972 All-Star team, Blass won 78 games in a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. Steve was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete game wins in Games 3 and 7. After retiring following the 1974 season, Steve remained in Pittsburgh and worked in private business in the city, and is currently employed by the Frank B. Fuhrer Company. In 1982 he worked with Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts, and was retained when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment in 1983. Steve and his wife Karen have two sons, David and Christopher, one grandchild, and reside in Upper St. Clair.

Note—In some cases, innings pitched and ERA do not match career totals shown in individual biographies. Prior to 1982, innings pitched were rounded off to the nearest whole inning (133.2 to 134) and ERA was calculated off the whole number. Beginning in 1982, innings pitched were listed exactly, including thirds of innings, and ERA was calculated from that exact figure. The figures shown in pitchers' statistical breakdown section reflect exact totals for all years.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple, and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 20 times by 17 different Pittsburgh players since the team's inception into the National League in 1887. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan, and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. Westlake was the last to do it at home (at Forbes Field in 1949), and it has been accomplished just three times since the 1951 season. The full list is carried below.

History of the Pittsburgh Pirates

Now in their 102nd National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates' history is filled with world championships, division titles, Hall of Fame representatives and other highlights.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually stretch back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1882, the Alleghenies joined the American Association, the major league rival of the National League, and gained acceptance into the prestigious National League in 1887.

Most of the Alleghenies' stars jumped to the Players (Brotherhood) League in 1890 in a dispute over low salaries. The Players League was disbanded shortly thereafter and players were ordered to return to their original teams. Pittsburgh received the nickname "Pirates" at that time when they were accused of "pirating" a player from the Philadelphia club.

In 1891, the new Pittsburgh Pirates took over Exposition Park on the north side of the Allegheny River, in approximately the same location that Three Rivers Stadium occupies today. The Pirates remained at Exposition Park until a dream was realized by owner Barney Dreyfuss when he opened the gates to Forbes Field, the first steel-structured stadium, on June 30, 1909.

Bill Benswanger succeeded his father-in-law, Dreyfuss, as Pirate President, upon the latter's death in 1932, and remained in that capacity until August 8, 1946 when John Galbreath teamed with Tom Johnson, Frank McKinney and entertainer Bing Crosby to purchase the club from the Benswanger family. McKinney sold his interest to Galbreath and Johnson in 1950, and Galbreath purchased Johnson's shares in early 1982.

The Galbreaths held 51 percent of the club's stock when they were joined in the Pirate family by Warner Communications in January, 1983. The entertainment conglomerate purchased 48 percent of the Pirate stock.

The newest chapter in Pirates' history began on October 2, 1985 when it was announced that a group of private and public investors, committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh, had reached an agreement in principle to purchase the Pirates from the Galbreath family and Warner Communications.

Pittsburgh Associates is made up of 13 investors, representing nine corporations and four individuals. The group includes Aluminum Company of America, Carnegie Mellon University, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell, Mellon Bank, N.A., National Intergroup, Inc., PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, Inc., Ryan Homes, Inc., Frank J. Schneider, USX Corporation, Harvey M. Walken, and Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Under the new ownership the Pirates have already made strides toward re-establishing themselves in the National League as well as in the community.

The Alleghenies defeated Chicago, 6-2, in their National League debut on April 30, 1887, but it wasn't a signal of things to come during the rest of the 19th century. In fact, the 1890 team set a record for most losses by a Pittsburgh team, finishing 23-113, and for its first 13 seasons in the senior circuit Pittsburgh's highest finish was a second-place showing in 1893 when the most remembered name on the club was a 31-year-old catcher named Connie Mack. "The Tall Tactician" later managed the Pirates (from Sept. of 1894 thru the 1896 season) but didn't enjoy the success he was able to achieve in 50 seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics, beginning in 1901.

Pittsburgh fortunes took a turn for the better in January of 1900 when the chief assets of the Louisville franchise were sold to Pittsburgh after the former was dropped by the National League. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss acquired 14 players including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell, plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All played significant roles as the Pirates rose to power in the dawning years of this century, winning the National League pennant in 1901, 1902, and 1903.

Dreyfuss, one of the pioneers of the game, is sometimes called the father of the World Series because he boldly challenged the American League champion Boston Red Sox to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was the best team. On Oct 1, 1903, Deacon Phillippe defeated the Red Sox' Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game played. Boston, however, emerged as the series winner, overcoming a three games to one deficit, to win five times in the eight-game series.

The 1903 Pirates represented the National League in the first World Series.

The Pirates finished runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club record 110 games that year under the direction of manager Clarke and went on to edge Detroit four games to three in a World Series that featured league batting champions Wagner and Ty Cobb, two of the original group of five players elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. in 1936.

In the 1920s, Forbes Field was described as "the Hialeah of ball parks." It was here on Oct 15, 1925 that Kiki Cuyler's bases-loaded double in the eighth inning gave the Pirates a 9-7 win over Walter Johnson and the Washington Senators in the seventh game of the World Series, capping a comeback that saw the Pirates rally from a three games to one deficit to win their second World Series in their third appearance in the Fall Classic. The Pirates emerged as N.L. champs again two years later, but this time were swept in four straight by the 1927 New York Yankees, featuring Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth and regarded by many as the finest team in the history of the game.

Pittsburgh fans had to endure some lean seasons, standings-wise, in the next 33 years, but the 1960 season was well worth the wait. Danny Murtaugh's team finished 95-59, seven games better than the Milwaukee Braves. As in their last World Series appearance, the Pirates were matched against a powerful Yankee lineup, this one featuring Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron. The Yankees won Games Two (16-3), Three (10-0), and Six (12-0) by large margins. The Pirates won Games One (6-4), Four (3-2), Five (5-2) and Seven (10-9). The Series was won on the most memorable at-bat in Pittsburgh history when Bill Mazeroski homered off Ralph Terry to lead off the ninth inning, breaking a 9-9 deadlock.

Bill Mazeroski's home run won Game Seven of the 1960 World Series.

The colorful history of Forbes Field spanned six decades and came to an end on June 28, 1970 when the Pirates played their final game in the great ballpark. On July 16 of that year the Pirates entered the era of the multi-purpose stadium when they played their first game at Three Rivers Stadium. The Pirates managed Three Rivers Stadium until January, 1983, when the City of Pittsburgh took over control of the facility. With the city takeover came a number of major improvements, including installation of new Astroturf, the addition of 5,000 seats and 37 new private lounge boxes and the unveiling of the DiamondVision video screen.

The Pirates were one of baseball's most successful teams in the 1970s. They amassed a 916-695 won-lost record from 1970-79 for a .569 winning percentage. Over that span, the Bucs won six division championships, two National League pennants and two more World Championships (1971 and 1979, both against the Baltimore Orioles). They were the only National League team to finish no lower than third place in a season during the '70s, and the only third place finish came in 1973.

Pittsburgh has played host to three All-Star games, and the National League has emerged as the winner in each. Forbes Field hosted the 1944 game and the first of two 1959 All-Star clashes. Three Rivers Stadium hosted the 1974 mid-summer classic.

Pirate Hall of Famers include Wagner, Clarke, Pie Traynor, Paul Waner, Max Carey, Bill McKechnie, Lloyd Waner, Branch Rickey, Cuyler, Roberto Clemente, Ralph Kiner, Arky Vaughan, and Willie Stargell, scheduled to be inducted on July 31, 1988.

Besides the championships, Pirate fans have had much to cheer about over the years. A few of the highlights include Wagner's eight N.L. batting titles, Kiner's seven consecutive home run championships, Dale Long's streak of homers in eight consecutive games in 1956, Harvey Haddix' 12-inning perfect game in 1959, ElRoy Face's 18 straight wins in relief in 1959, Clemente's 3,000th hit in 1972, Stargell's 475 homers including seven which cleared the roof at Forbes Field and four which reached the upper deck at Three Rivers Stadium, and Rennie Stennett's 7-for-7 performance in a game at Chicago in 1975.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Babe Ruth hit the final three home runs of his career on May 25, 1935, when he connected once against the Pirates' Red Lucas and twice against Guy Bush at Forbes Field.

PIRATE DIAMOND CLUB

The Pirates' Diamond Club was formed on February 4, 1986, to provide an annually growing foundation of advance season ticket sales.

Now in its third season, the Diamond Club has extended its purpose to include advance and in-season group sales.

Last season, some 30 volunteers sold over 300,000 tickets. Under the guidance of a newly elected Board of Directors, 50 volunteers will continue its sales efforts in the community in 1988.

Members earn a one-week trip to Spring Training in Bradenton, Florida as well as an incentive west coast trip during the season.

Bob Derda is the Diamond Club Director. He can be contacted at (412) 323-5044

Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs in June, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, second only to Babe Ruth's 8.5 per 100 at-bats. Number retired in 1987.

NO. 8 — WILLIE STARGELL . . . Born, March 6, 1940 in Earlsboro, Okla. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at-bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988). Number retired in 1982.

NO. 9 — BILL MAZEROSKI . . . Born Sept. 5, 1936 in Wheeling, W.V. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. Among the major league records for second basemen he holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Number retired in 1987.

NO. 20 — PIE TRAYNOR . . . Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, Mass., died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at-bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns, second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average, and 101 homers.
